

Interesting reads

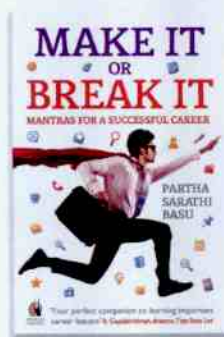

NOBODY CAN LOVE YOU MORE

The Delhiwalla is back with his latest book, which highlights what all goes in the dark dungeons of Delhi's red light district. The author delves deep into the lives of women of Kotha no. 300 and shares their take on life. Life in brothel is not just about flesh trade, there's an equal dose of emotion attached to the lives of the women. Right from raising their children to visiting shrines, listening to film songs to pondering over their actual names and lives, the book highlights every aspect of the lives of these women.

Author: Mayank Austen Soofi

Publication House: Penguin Viking

Price: ₹399

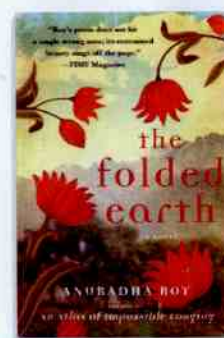

MAKE IT OR BREAK IT

Non-stop round the clock work schedules are adding to the stress of those associated with the 'Corporate World'. To survive and succeed in this rat race, one needs to learn numerous tricks. Basu has culled out the same in Make It or Break It, an indispensable guide to give one's career a soaring start. Some of the most important corporate lessons come bundled in this book which guides one on how to start on the right foot and emerge a winner. The book also helps people in navigating their way through this corporate jungle and understand the unwritten rules and hidden pitfalls. The book also makes one accomplished to face the fierce competition scenario.

Author: Partha Sarathi Basu

Publication House: Penguin

Price: ₹250

THE FOLDED EARTH

The widely acclaimed author is back, and this time with a powerful and eclectic tale set in contemporary India, where a young woman forges a new way of life in the foothills of Himalayas. Maya, the protagonist, is a young widow who is trying to break loose from her complicated past. She chooses to teach in a school in the hills where air is trepid. Here, she teaches Charu to read and write so that she can correspond with her lover in secret. As Maya finds out, however, no refuge is remote enough to keep out the modern world, or her own past. Folded Earth brims with the same genius and love of language that made Roy's debut an international success.

Author: Anuradha Roy

Published by: Westland

Price: ₹399

The Forest of Stories by Ashok Banker, Westland
Price: ₹295

Thundergod by Rajiv G Menon; Westland;
Price: ₹250

Silk, Fish, Opium by Jaina Sangha; Tranquebar;
Price: ₹295

Patriots and Partisans by Ramchandra Guha; Allen Lane; Fiction,
Price: ₹699

The Cherry Tree by Ruskin Bond; Puffin,
Price: ₹150

Zombiestan by Mainak Dhar; Duckbill;
Price: ₹199

by nitika bajpayee